

VIRTUAL DATE NIGHT

DALLAS MUSEUM OF ART

NATURE SCAVENGER HUNT

Take a walk around your neighborhood or a nearby park and use nature-inspired artwork from the DMA's collection to guide your search. Work together as a team to spot as many items as you can, or show off your competitive nature and divide into two teams to see who finds the most items.

Find a frog.

Moche culture, Peru
Jar: frog form
400–550 CE

Find a pair of squirrels.

John James Audubon
Spermophilus Douglassii
(Two Douglas Squirrels)
1844

Find a creek or stream.

Charles T. Bowling
Turtle Creek
1928

Find a lily pad
or waterlily.

Otis Dozier
Waterlilies
1929

Find a wooded area
or a group of trees.

Narcisse Diaz de la Peña
Forest of Fontainebleau
1868

Find a horse,
statue or live.

Antoine-Louis Barye
Turkish Horse
1818

Find a dog.

Jean-Baptiste Oudry
Study of a Hound
Baying
1686–1755

Find a cat
or a pair of cats.

Kiyoshi Saito
Two Cats
1955

Find an early moonrise.

Childe Hassam
September Moonrise
1900

Find a lovely sunset.

Reveau Bassett
Sunset
1897–1981

Find a crane
or a flock of cranes.

Unknown artist, Japan
Vase
Late 19th–early 20th century

Find a spider.

Bonus point if you find a cool spiderweb.

Unknown artist, Ghana Sword ornament in the form of a spider
Late 19th century

Find a magnolia tree.

John Breckinridge Martin
Magnolia Blossoms
1933

Find a pine tree.

Winston Churchill
Sea and Pine Trees,
Cap d'Ail
c.1955

Look for interesting clouds.

Bonus point if you can identify the cloud type.

Are they cirrus, altostratus, stratus or cumulus today?

April Gorknik
Circling Clouds
1984

Find a duck.

Artist unknown
Detail: Bowl
16th-17th century

VIRTUAL DATE NIGHT